

University Profile

Marywood University, located in Northeastern Pennsylvania, at the foothills of the Pocono Mountains, is a comprehensive, independent, private, Catholic institution. Marywood offers many of the advantages of a large university, including more than 80 undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral degrees taught by outstanding faculty, along with 22 NCAA Division III athletic teams. Marywood's historic residential location offers a community-based environment, which provides students with a friendly atmosphere and a high level of personal attention. Marywood University is in close proximity to state parks, outdoor activities, and major metropolitan areas, further enhancing the overall student experience. At Marywood, students discover their passion and realize their purpose.

Admissions Activity Undergraduate Full-time & Part-time New Students

23.9% Enrollment Rate

Students Applied	2,976
Students Accepted	2,302
Total Enrolled	550

Admissions Activity Graduate Full-time & Part-time New Students

Students Applied	1,252
Students Accepted	748
Total Enrolled	526

Average SAT Score for First-time, Full-time Students

1169 — Reading 594 — Math 575

Student Population

Total Undergraduate Enrollment
1,916 (1,312 Women / 604 Men)

Total Graduate Enrollment
690 (530 women / 160 Men)

Retention & Graduation Rates for First-time, Full-time Students

1-Year Retention 82.5% Graduate within 6 years 75.5%

Estimated 2023-2024 Tuition, Fees, Room & Board Charges

Tuition for Full-time Students	$37,700
Room & Board	$15,100
General Fee	$1,600
Student Activities Fee	$270
Matriculation Fee*	$250
Total Cost Per Year	$54,290

one time fee for students*

All data is from the Marywood University 2022-2023 Fact Book.

