

2024-2025 Cloverfields Scholars Program

Marywood University is committed to empowerment through education. Through our programs, services, and community outreach, Marywood collaborates with the community to lift up individuals, their families, and entire generations. The Cloverfields Scholars Program helps to strengthen our culture of servant leadership by providing financial support to first generation college students who demonstrate the potential to become student leaders. An applicant must be an incoming freshman who has been admitted to Marywood University for the 2024-2025 academic year. This scholarship will cover tuition, required fees, and on-campus room/board if applicable after federal/state grants and is renewable dependent on selected applicant(s) maintaining a 3.0 G.P.A. and fulfilling the requirements outlined in the Cloverfields Scholars Agreement.

Deadline: This application form must be emailed or postmarked (if mailing) by May 1, 2024. Applications after May 1, 2024 will be awarded on a funds available basis. Completed applications should be sent to: Marywood University, Financial Aid Office, 2300 Adams Avenue, Scranton, PA, 18509; or to hnbrown@marywood.edu.
